MISSOULA--

"Hearts and Minds," the Academy Award winning documentary about U.S. involvement in Vietnam, will be shown free of charge at 8 p.m. and 10 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 5, in the University Center Ballroom at the University of Montana.

The film, which is being shown at UM for the second consecutive year under the auspices of the Program Council of the Associated Students of UM, was produced by Peter Davis and Bert Schneider.

The antiwar documentary draws on historical record and incorporates exclusive interviews with Gen. William Westmoreland, U.S. Sen. William Fulbright and Clark Clifford, former U.S. Secretary of Defense.

Also interviewed in the film are Daniel Ellsberg, the man who made public the once-secret Pentagon Papers on the Vietnam War, and Walt W. Rostow, adviser to Presidents John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson. Ellsberg and Rostow spoke in Missoula last year during a Mansfield Lecture on International Relations.

The public is invited to attend the October 5 showing of "Hearts and Minds."
